C&L WARD RECEIVES CEO BUSINESS AWARD FROM FLINT & GENESEE CHAMBER

November 20, 2015 (Davison, MI) - C&L Ward was awarded the CEO Business Award by the Flint & Genesee Chamber of Commerce at their 2nd Annual Art of Achievement Award ceremony held on November 12, 2015 at the Riverfront Banquet Center. To be eligible for this award, a company must have 50 or more employees working to have a positive impact in Genesee County, demonstrate outstanding customer service, demonstrate excellence in team building, management and development and contribute to the overall well-being of Flint and Genesee County.

Their written nomination submitted for this award included stories of the company's growth and achievements during the past 43 years as well as their increased involvement in the community. They were one of four companies to be chosen as a finalist for this award.

"It's quite an achievement for our company to receive such an honor amongst the other stellar businesses in Genesee County," said Patrick Ward, C&L Ward's president. "We have a wonderful team who work diligently to help our company succeed. I am humbled to accept this recognition and would like to thank our employees and our Founders, Ron and Tom Ward, for helping us become the thriving business we are today."

Other categories for the award ceremony included Small Business Award; Minority Owned Business Award; Claire M. White Award; Young Professional Leader Award; Nonprofit Impact Award; and Government Contractor of the Year. There is a hospitality category which includes: Gloria J. DeHart Award; Hospitality Ambassador Award; Frontline Ambassador Award; Restaurant of the Year; Hotel of the Year; and Community Champion Award.
