C&L WARD RECEIVES NATIONAL HONORS FROM TWO REMODELING PUBLICATIONS

Qualified Remodeler and Remodeling Magazine Release Top 500 and 550 Remodeler Rankings

September 5, 2013 (Davison, MI) - C&L Ward has been recognized for the fourth year in a row by two national home improvement/remodeling publications as one of the top replacement remodeling companies in the country. Among the top 500 replacement remodeling companies in the nation tabulated by Qualified Remodeler magazine, C&L Ward, who was ranked at 70th in the country in 2012, moved up the ranks to 58th in the nation this year. In Remodeling Magazine, which does a similar ranking of the top 550 replacement remodelers, C&L Ward ranked 32nd in 2013, in which they were ranked 35th in 2012, moving them up, as well.

The lists, published annually by both magazines for over 30 years, rank the top replacement remodelers in the United States by revenue. "It's quite an achievement and an honor to move up in the rankings four years in a row," said Patrick Ward, C&L Ward's president. "With more than 100,000 remodelers in the industry, it's truly a distinction that sets us apart."

Ward credits his professional sales staff and certified installers for putting his family name on the line with each and every project they complete. "Sales figures are only a part of the equation," stated Ward. "I'm especially proud of our employees for their commitment to see that our customers are completely satisfied before, during and after the sale. It takes everyone's commitment to receive an honor like this and they should all be proud of this achievement."
