C&L WARD ANNOUNCES THEIR ANNUAL $10,000 HOME MAKEOVER WINNER

August 21, 2015 (Davison, MI) - C&L Ward has announced the winner of their annual $10,000 Home Makeover Sweepstakes. Ann Steep of Rochester Hills, Michigan (and her family) were selected randomly from thousands of entries to receive an exterior makeover to their home. When called and told she was selected, Ms. Steep said she wasn't sure if it was a gimmick or the real deal. She entered the sweepstakes on C&L Ward's website received a quote for the doors from C&L Ward in September of 2014 and decided to see if she could win them through the makeover contest. She was quite excited when she realized that it was not a hoax and wanted to use the prize to get the new Andersen patio doors. The real excitement settled in when she and her husband had their patio doors installed week. Dean Lewis from Goodrich, Michigan won the sweepstakes in 2014.

"We are excited to present Mr. & Mrs. Steep with a certificate for $10,000 to use on our quality products from C&L Ward," stated Patrick Ward, President of C & L Ward. "Providing an annual sweepstakes is just one way we try and give back to our communities and customers that support us. The fact that another winner is a current customer is just wonderful. What a great way we can say 'thank you' for being our customer."
